This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

1676. Ordinacio vicarie de Bergh.

Bishop Ralph to all, &c. Lately in our visitation it was found that the vicarage of the church of Bergh', annexed to the archdeaconry of Wells was so poor that the vicar could not be suitably sustained. And whereas in the process which by reason of the premises we thought fit should be made against Sir Roger de Mortuo Mari, our archdeacon of Wells, for the purpose of augmenting the same vicarage, a certain ordinance made by John de Drokenesford, our immediate predecessor, was exhibited before our commissary containing the tenour below written.

To all, &c., John, by divine permission Bishop of Bath and Wells, greeting. Considering that Master Robert de Wamberge, our archdeacon of Wells, holding the parish church of Bergh' annexed to his archdeaconry for the sustentation of 3 chaplains to celebrate in our church of Wells, for our safety and of certain our predecessors &c., deceased, and also in recompence for the damages which the same archdeacon and his dignity sustained in the loss or necessary alienation of certain lands in the manor of Middleton, once belonging to the archdeaconry, presented John de Hampton Meysy, priest, to the vicarage of the said church with certain portions to be appointed by us. That is to say, the vicar shall hold one acre of arable land in croft called Pynokescroft for the habitation of the vicar and his successors. The vicar shall take all oblations, obventions, alterages and small tithes. The vicar shall pay to the archdeacons 40*s*. in the name of a pension in aid of the sustentation of the said three chaplains. All other things shall remain to the archdeacon and his successors for ever. Provided nevertheless that the portions of the vicar and his vicarage amount to 12 marks. The vicar shall bear all charges ordinary and extraordinary pro rata.

Dated at London, xv Kal., March, A.D. 1327, and the 20th of our consecration.

We, having considered the faculties of the said church, and the charges incumbent on the same, have withdrawn the said pension of 40*s*. and do discharge the vicar from the same and we have augmented the said vicarage beyond the portions contained in the said ordinance, our withdrawal of the pension aforesaid standing, under this form. That is to say, the vicar and his successors shall take annually from the archdeacon and his successors and the church of Berghes, 12 quarters of as pure corn, according to the circumstances of the parish of Berghes, as in the common judgment of men would be thought fitting for seed, viz., 4 quarters of wheat, 4 quarters of barley, and 4 quarters of beans. As often as the archdeacon and his successors shall be deficient in the payment of the said corn they shall be bound to pay 40*s*. in subsidy of the fabric of the churches of Bath and Wells, by even portions.

1677. Day before the Id., Sept., A. D. 1342, at Everecrich. William Peytevyn in the presence of Master Nicholas de Cloebury and William de Coleford swore to keep all things contained in the letter which follows. This indenture witnesseth that although William Peytevyn, of Melles, is bound to John Le Botiller, of Haydon, and John de Coleford or one of them in 20*li.* to be paid on the feast of the Nativity of the B. Mary 16 Edw iii, the same John and John grant that as long as the said William shall honestly and peaceably allow Ellen his wife to live and be sustained with him the said letter obligatory shall be held in suspenso. If the said Ellen commit adultery or consume their common goods in luxury and this can be confirmed by trustworthy men in lawful manner to the sum of 100*s.* then the said letter obligatory, shall be held for naught. Or if the said William shall torment her by way of chastisement then the bond is to stand good.

1722. Same day and place.

Letters dimissory for Thomas Queyntrel, having the first tonsure, to obtain all holy orders.

1723. To all, &c. Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, greeting.

The smallness of the vicarage of Burgh (Berrow) the charges incumbent on the vicar, and the magnitude of the care incumbent on the vicar by reason whereof it behoves the said vicar to have a chaplain in aid of the exercise of his cure having been considered, we augmented the said vicarage under this form of words.

To all, &c. It was lately discovered in our visitation that the vicarage of the church of Burghe, annexed to the archdeaconry of Wells was so small that the vicar could not be suitably sustained, show hospitality, and support the other charges, and whereas in the process which for the reason aforesaid we thought fit to be made against Sir Roger de Mortuo Mari, archdeacon of Wells, for the purpose of augmenting the said vicarage, an ordinance of John de Drokenesford, our immediate predecessor, was exhibited before our commissaries containing the tenour below written.

To all the sons of the holy mother church, John, by divine permission, bishop of Bath and Wells, greeting, &c. [as on page 450].

Dated at London, xv Kal., March, A.D. 1328.

Dated at Woky, vij Id., Dec., A.D. 1338.

But as Sir John, now vicar of Burgh, retains no chaplain, pretending that he was by no means bound to have one, thereby claiming that no mention is had in our said letters of having such a chaplain with him, wishing to supply the things which were omitted in our said letters by error or negligence we will and also ordain that the said John, now vicar of Burgh, and his successors who for the time shall be, are bound for ever to provide a fit chaplain.

Venerabili in Christo patri ac domino Radulpho Dei gratia Bathoniensi et Wellensi Episcopo, Johannes ejusdem miseracione Exoniensis Episcopus salutem, &c. Vestra noverit paternitas reverenda quod cum in festo sancti Luce Evangeliste proximo preterito in ecclesia nostra parochiali de Tottonia nostre diocesis ob reverenciam tanti festi simulque ob consecracionis nostre annuum revolucionis diem in pontificalibus prout decuit missam celebrantes, Verbum Dei post Evangelium astanti proponerimus clero et populo, quidam perdicionis filii, videlicet, Willelmus qui se denominat de Clavyle, alias tamen Wyteprest vel Hamond dictus, necnon Johannes Atte Watere de Combe Martyn nepos Magistri Johannis Peris et Johannes de Badevyle, consanguinei ejusdem, cum multis aliis suis complicibus, sagittariis et diversis armorum generibus armatis missi ex parte predicti Magistri Johannis Perys se asserentis Archidiaconum Tottonensem in ecclesia nostra Exon' subito cum magno strepitu et tumultu ecclesiam predictam ingressi nec loco aut festo, persone vel ministerio reverenciam deferendo, officium divinum et nostram ac populi devotionem horribiliter more infidelium impedierunt. Quos cum primo, secundo et tertio ac peremptorie legitimeque monuissemus ut in specie ab hujusmodi nefariis impedimentis et tumultu desisterent et cessarent, quia id facere et monicionibus nostris canonicis parere rebelliter contempserunt, in eos nominatim propter offensam et rebellionem hujusmodi in scriptis et alias legitime majoris excommunicationis sententiam fulminavimus prout juste tanti sceleris enormitas requirebat. Predictum preterea Willelmum de Clavyle, prius per nos autoritate nostra ordinaria ex certis causis legitimis majoris excommunicationis sententia innodatum et etiam auctoritate apostolica excommunicatum pronunciatum et declaratum, per nos ex hoc de dicta ecclesia recedere monitum primo, secundo et tercio ac peremptorie atque jussum, et id facere contumaciter non curantem, in sententiam excommunicationis majoris, in tales a jure latam, postea declaraverimus incidisse. The petition of the prior and monks of Henton, exhibited to us contained that their arable lands for cultivating are very hilly and stony, and the rents issuing from their water-mills are now slender and poor, and the pensions they are bound to pay exceed the value of the parts retained, so that they do not suffice for the food necessary for the monks, and to show hospitality. William de Littelton, precentor of Wells, has granted to them the right of patronage of the church of Henton, by reason of which they have supplicated us that we should cause the said church to be appropriated to them.

We, Bishop Ralph, by the consent of our chapters appropriate and grant the said parish church of Henton, now vacant, to the aforesaid prior and monks and their successors. Saving an annual pension of 6*s*. 8*d*. to the fabric of our church at Wells, and a pension of 40*d*. to our archdeacon of Wells in recompence of the fruits at the time of the vacancy of the said church. Saving also to the vicar in the same at the presentation of the precentor of Wells a suitable portion which we assess thus. The

The said vicar shall also take from the said religious men 4li. every year, and two waggon loads of wood for fuel or 3s., and one waggon load of straw. The vicar shall have the dwelling-house for the parish chaplain now situated near the church. A "placea" shall be built at the costs of the said religious men. The monks shall repair the books and ornaments for this time only, and then the vicar is bound to do it. Moreover we ordain that the precentor shall nominate two fit men for the vicarage, and the precentor shall present one of the two chosen by the religious men to us when the vicarage shall be vacant.

We order you to let the bishop know that he shall be before us in our chancery on the quindene of Easter next to show if he has or knows anything to say wherefore he should not receive a caution from the said Thomas to obey the order of the church that he may obtain the benefit of absolution, and that the justices may proceed in the said plea according to the law and custom of England.

On the 4th day of Jan., we received the order of the said court in these words :—

To the venerable father in Christ Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, the official of the court of Canterbury, greeting, &c.

We have received the complaint of Thomas Conduyt, of your diocese, containing that you fulminated the sentence of greater excommunication on him the said Thomas he not being lawfully cited, &c.

We cite you, &c.

London, Kal., Dec., A.D. 1345

But because the said Thomas Conduit appearing at a certain day and place before the issuing of the said order upon certain articles concerning the mere correction of his soul to be objected to him ex officio nostro was cited and did not take care to appear, our commissary thought, as was right, that he was contumacious. We afterwards, by your order, assigned Wednesday next after Epiphany for the said Thomas Conduyt to receive fulness of justice in the parish church of Banewell. At which day and place William C. proctor of the said Thomas appeared before our commissary for him. On whom our commissary offered to bestow the benefit of absolution, he being prepared, nevertheless, to take the oath to stand to the orders of the church concerning the contumacy. But because the proctor did not care to take the oath we did not proceed further in the matter. Nevertheless at the day and place contained in your mandate we will appear as we are bound. Dated at Banewell, ix Kal., Feb., A.D. above. Fol. 307.

By pretext of which mandate we will fulminate no sentence of excommunication against the said Thomas or cause it publicly to be announced that he was so excommunicated, nevertheless we assigned Wednesday next after the Epiphany next after the receipt of your mandate for the said Thomas to appear before us or our commissary in the parish church of Banewell. But because the said Thomas did not appear we did not proceed in the matter, and so we did fulness of justice to the said Thomas as we were bound, nevertheless we will appear at the day and place contained in your mandate.

Banewell, as above.

But whereas the sentence of excommunication concerning which the said Thomas complains was lawfully fulminated, nevertheless the said Thomas did not take care to ask us to revoke the said sentence, although we were and are ready to revoke it as we are bound.

Dated as before.

1933. The official of the court of Canterbury to Bishop Ralph.

The petition of Sir William de Tilneye, chaplain, exhibited to us contained that although he was presented to the parish church of Buddeclegh you, at the instance of Sir William de Tiderleye, did not take care to enquire concerning the vacancy of the said church and to perform the other things which are incumbent on your office. We inhibit you.

Also cite the said William de Tyderleye.

Edwardus Dei gratia rex Anglie et Francie et dominus Hibernie venerabili in Christo patri J. eadem gratio archiepiscopo Cantuar', &c., salutem. Satis scitis immo vos sicut ceteri fideles nostri quadam onerosa participatione sensistis quantum guerrarum incomodi fuimus a tempore suscepti regiminis continue lacessiti, et cum pridem captis treugis in Britaniam per mediationem domini summi pontificis pacis amenitas provenire speraretur subito quietis applausis in horridam transiit tempestatem. Nam Philippus de Valesio qui ad nostri et nostrorum subversionem quinio nationis Anglicane delectionem pro viribus elaborat sub umbra dictarum treugarum plura commisit, per que dicte treuge noscuntur notorie violate, sicque guerram resumere compellimur, novit altissimus et inviti. Unde et si ipsius adversarii nostri thesauriis et potencia nostris nimis preponderent et ipse per dolosa consilia prevalere satagat in iniquitate sua: nos tamen non de terrena, sed de divina potencia, ac nostra confisi justicia, tam pro defensione ecclesie et regni nostri Anglie ac aliarum terrarum nostrarum, quam hereditariorum que dictus Philippus nobis detinet et injuste, progressum nostrum forciorem quo possumus sicut impellit extrema necessitas, ordinavimus, ultra mare, &c. Et quia ad hujusmodi gratiam consequendam vestrorum et aliorum fidelium orationum suffragia nobis speramus plurimum oportuna, cum in facto nostro, ne dum privata nostra, sed communia fidelium nostrorum versentur pericula velitis pro dicto progressu nostro preces devotas effundere, &c. Datum apud West.

2301. Bishop Ralph to the archdeacon or his official.

In the progress of our visitation, when making our transit through the town of Jevele on Sunday next before the feast of St. Martin last, and whilst we caused the divine office to be chanted, at the hour of vespers on the said Sunday, in the parish church of Jevele, certain sons of perdition, forming the community of the said town, having assembled in a numerous multitude with bows, arrows, iron bars, stones and other kinds of arms, fiercely wounded very many of our servants of God to the abundant spilling of blood. But not content with these evil doings they entered into the said church with great strife and shut us and our servants in the said church until the darkness of the night of the same day. And afterwards they incarcerated us and our servants in the rectory of the said church until on the day following the neighbours, devout sons of the church and all worthy of commendation, delivered us from so great danger and from our prison. All and singular which delinquents we declare to have fallen into the sentence of greater excommunication. We order you that you denounce the said favourers in all the churches under your jurisdiction.

Dated, &c.

This mandate was directed to the archdeacons of Wells, Taunton, Bath, the dean of Wells, the rector of Stokedenys and the perpetual vicar of Jevele under the same tenour.

2303. Bishop Ralph to the perpetual vicar of Jevele.

Although lately we declared the town of Jevele, the villages or hamlets of the same to lie under interdict on account of the demerits of the sons of Belial being there who rushed to the irreverence of our pontifical dignity and to the no small injury of our servants whilst we were in the progress of our visitation at Jevele. Lest the instruments of divine praise there be suspended, the teaching of Christ diminished and the devotion of the beloved of God be weakened, we suspend the said interdict until the Epiphany of the Lord next to come.

Wyvelscombe, 5 Dec., A.D. 1349.

2304. Bishop Ralph to the rector of Thorne.

The cemetery of the parish church of Jevele is polluted by the violent effusion of human blood that dead bodies cannot be buried before reconciliation without offence to the law; and although the bodies of the deceased persons ought to be borne to the cemeteries of our churches of Bath and Wells and there to be buried. We, nevertheless, wishing to mitigate this rigour, order you that, when the bodies of the parish of Jevele come to be buried at your church, you receive and admit them to burial until otherwise you shall have orders from us.

Wyvelscomb, 5 Oct,, A.D. 1349.

That is to say, that each of them shall restore to you all the arms which they used in the assault, to be kept by you until we order what shall be done with them. Each of them shall stand on Sundays on a lofty place of the said church bare headed, &c., whilst the divine offices are being celebrated, he shall hold a taper of one pound of wax burning and shall offer it to him celebrating mass. That is to say, he would go round the church of Jevele three times on Sundays and feast days before the procession to be made on that occasion with bare head and feet, &c., in penitential manner, and whilst high mass is being celebrated he shall hold a taper of the weight of one pound of wax in his hand, which, when the punishment has been gone through he shall offer to the high altar there, and the chaplain celebrating the mass shall expound the cause of the said punishment to the clergy and the people in the vulgar. We order you that immediately you see these presents you cause one of your canons, being a prudent man and circumspect in temporal affairs, to be placed quickly in the said office.

2428. In the roll of the memoranda of the Exchequer for the term of Holy Trinity in the 22nd year of the reign of King Edward iii after the Conquest.

The King's writ to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer. On the behalf of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, it has been pointed out to us, complaining that, whereas divers tenants of 16½ knight's fees and the fourth part of a fee in certain vills in the hundreds of Wynterstoke, Chyw and Wells, Kyngesbury, Welw and Bath Foreyn hold of the said bishopric in demesne and the same tenants by their proper hands have paid that which pertains to us for those fees for the aid of 40*li.* to make our eldest son a knight, you nevertheless, by the evidence of a certain inquisition taken in the time of our grandfather before the collectors of the aid granted to marry his eldest daughter, cause the said bishop to be distrained for 33*li.* 10*s.* by reason of the same aid. 2448. The official of the bishop of Bath and Wells, to the court of Canterbury and the president of the same.

I have received your mandate of 12 April, containing the tenour below written.

It has been intimated to us on the behalf of John Bouswayn, rector of Kyngeston, that he obtained the said church, and, fearing prejudice about his possession, appealed to the Apostolic See. But Master John de Sydenhale, canon of Wells, and Sir John de Risyngdon, rector of Jevele, pretending that they were the commissaries of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, in the matter of privation, declaration and removal "dictum Johannem Bouswayn prefatam ecclesiam de Kyngeston et aliud quoddam beneficium ecclesiasticum quod de jure vel consuetudine cum dicta ecclesia simul optinere non potest nec poterat quovismodo simul adinvicem habuisse et absque auctoritate sufficienti quacumque potest et contra concilium generale in hac parte editum et ejus artacionem per mensem et menses de facto dampnabiliter tenuisse, quodque fructus, redditus et proventus spectantes ad eadem et provenientes ex eis, ipsa simul tenendo et pacifice possidendo habuit et percepit ac sic percipiendo fructus, redditus et preventus ecclesie de Kyngeston predicte post assecucionem alterius prefati incompassibilis beneficii dum eadem ecclesia virtute generalis concilii antedicti fuerat ipso jure privatus, rem alienam illicite contractavit, ac de et in eis furtum quodammodo commisit et rapinam; asserentes eciam quamvis indebite ipsum ex hoc irregularitatem contraxisse ad privacionem dicti Johannis Bouswayn ecclesia sua de Kyngeston predicta et ammocionem ab ea seu declarationem vacacionis ejusdem ex officio procedere satagentes, nulla fide facta de ipsorum in ea parte potestate dicto Johanni Bouswayn certis die et loco sibi ad hoc assignatis quemdam articulum ad finem effectum privacionis, amocionis seu declaracionis hujusmodi contra eundem editum seu formatum nimis generale vagum et obscuram ac multipliciter inepte conceptum porrexerunt. Et quamquam pars dicti Johannis Bouswayn copias commissionis sive potestatis ipsorum pretensorum commissariorum pretextu quarum contra ipsum in ea parte procedere intendebant ac omnium aliorum actorum judicialium in ea parte habitorum contra eum, quas pars ejusdem nunquam habuit et de jure habere debuit, necnon debitam emendacionem et declaracionem articuli predicti sine quibus super eodem deliberare aut eidem commode seu convenienter respondere non valebat sibi dari, decerni, concedi et efficaciter fieri congruis loco et tempore cum instancia debita petivisset. Prefati tamen pretensi commissarii peticionibus dicti Johannis Bouswayn hujusmodi omnibus et singulis spretis pariter et neglectis in dicto negocio contra eum ad actus peticionibus suis prejudiciales ulterius processerunt.

Ac ad procedendum, faciendum et recipiendum ulterius in prefato negocio diem ad honorem Dei notorie feriatum prefixerunt eidem ipsumque circa jus et possessionem suam hujusmodi multipliciter molestarunt, inquietarunt, et turbarunt minus juste, &c. Fol. 362.

It has been intimated to us on the behalf of the chapter of the cathedral church of Wells that, whereas by ancient and laudable custom observed from a time of which the memory of man is not to the contrary, all jurisdiction over whatsoever places and persons of the deanery of Wells and dwelling in its jurisdiction, territory or district pertaining in any manner to the dean and the custody of the same, and also of the rights and liberties of the same, and the collection taking, preserving and keeping of certain goods, rents, fruits and issues, pertain to the chapter of the said church of Wells for the whole time of the vacancy of the said deanery, on the behalf of the said chapter, fearing prejudice, it was appealed to the Apostolic see and for the protection of the court of Canterbury, Master Thomas de Bocton sometimes pretending to be the commissary of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, and sometimes his official, not withstanding the said appeal and other the premises by the authority and order of the said father, warned Masters Richard de Carleton, John de Wamberge and Nicholas de Iford, clerks, officials of the said chapter, now vacant by the death of Sir Walter de London, that they should desist from all exercise of ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the dean and that they should permit the said bishop and himself in his name to use the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the dean under pain of greater excommunication. Wherefore, so standing at the door, I openly exposed the said mandate and cited the aforesaid father to appear in the form ordered to me, Master Thomas de Bocton is said to be at London or in the city of York. I have caused Master Simon de Farwey to be sought in his church by a sworn messenger, but neither he nor Richard Sowy could be found, but I cited the said Masters Thomas, Simon and Richard, who are said to be servants of the same father, on the said 24th day at the door aforesaid in form commanded me,

Simon permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, &c., venerabili fratri nostro Radulpho Dei gratia episcopo London' salutem et fraternam in Domino caritatem. Effrenata generis humani cujus conatus nisi justicia sua virtute reprimeret, ita ex sibi malicia iniciata excresceret, quod caritas extra mundi terminos exularet. Sane communis ad nos querela perduxit, et magistra rerum efficax experiencia manifestat quod sacerdotes qui jam supersunt, non considerantes quod ad execucionem misterii sibi commissi, propter populum Dei et utilitatem publicam, non propter sua merita, disposicione divina, a periculis pestilencie preterite preservantur, nec erubescentes quod eorum insaciabilis avaricia, ab aliis operariis eciam laicis, nequiter et pernicose trahitur in exemplum; de animarum cura que ceteris curis, a ministris, preser*tum* ecclesiasticis, est merito preferenda, non curant; ad quam cum quis invi*tas* assumitur; si humiliter pareat, de majori poterit merito gloriari. Sed curas animarum gerere negligunt et onera curatorum mutua supportare, quinimo eis penitus derelictis; ad celebranda anualia et ad alia pecularia se referunt obsequenda, ut sic antiquas possunt insolencias liberius revocare, stipendiis competentibus et solitis non contenti, sed pro eorum serviciis, stipendia exigunt excessiva, sic quod sub nomine simplici et labore debili, majore sibi lucra vendicant, quam curati. Unde eveniet nisi eorum irrationabiles appetitus ad equitatis regulam reducatur, tum propter hujusmodi frequentacionem anualium, tum propter stipendiorum suorum quantitatem nullo libramine moderatum; plures immo plurime tam nostre quam vestre diocesis et tocius nostre provincie ecclesie, prebende et capelle remanebunt sacerdotum obsequiis destitute, et quod dolores nobis accumulat, curati faciliter propter simile modum ad obsequia similia se convertent, derelictis penitus suis curis. Volentes igitur hujusmodi sacerdotum insaciabile desiderium, propter predicta pericula et alia dispendia gravia que ulterior conniventia adiceret remediis quibus convenit refrenare. Fraternitatem vestram requirimus, &c.[1]

2475. Bishop Ralph to the rectors of Hocton and Axebrugge, and the perpetual vicars of Banewell, Compton, Congresbury, Jacton, Cheddre and Wynescomb. Copiosa multitudo ad nos undique confluens querulis et clamosis insinuacionibus nostris auribus intimavit, avaricie cevitatem et dampnande improbitatem ambicionis operariorum et servientium, qui 'laborers' vulgariter nuncupantur, in nostra diocese animos exorcantes in tantam temeritatem inpellise, ut pactum ab eis initum juramento vallatum de serviendo fideliter eisdem cum quibus convenerunt in operis quibus sunt instructi, necnon et sacramentum corporale a dictis operariis omnibus et singulis, cujuscumque generis et condicionis existentibus in predicta nostra diocese moram facientibus, per Justiciarios excellentissimi principis et domini nostri Edwardi Dei gracia regis Anglie et Francie prudenter et pro utilitate publica exactum, et ab eisdem tactis sacrosanctis evangeliis prestitum, quod pro mercede et stipendiis laboris eorundem a tempore juramenti hujusmodi interpositi amplius non recipiant quam anno vicesimo regni sui Anglie percipere consueverunt. 2545. Although I, Aylmer Le Botiller, rector of the church of Kyngeston Seymour, have canonically obtained the said church and possessed it peaceably and quietly, yet fearing prejudice, lest anyone should attempt prejudice it was appealed to the Apostolic See. Nevertheless you Masters John Sydenale and John de Rysyngdon and Nicholas Pontesbury asserting that you were the commissaries of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, in this behalf, assigned a term for me to appear before the said father or you, in the church of Wyvelescomb to answer concerning certain vague articles, &c. Wherefore I appeal to the said Apostolic See and the court of Canterbury for protection.

Our visitation in our diocese having been lawfully commenced, being hindered by certain necessary and urgent causes, we were not able to go to the monastery of Kayngton, we ordered it to be visited by Masters John de Sydenhale and Nicholas de Pontesbury, our beloved clerks. In the said visitation it was discovered that a certain Matilda Pulham and Alice Northlode, nuns of the said monastery, discourse with suspected persons and frequently admitted them and on dark nights the said nuns held Fol. 398. long and suspected conversation with Richard Sompnour aad Hugh Willynge, chaplains, in the nave of the church of the said monastery "et ut suspicatur a multis ac consequenter inciderunt in pejoribus. Dicteque sorores hiis malis non contente, prefata Matildis saltim, per insolencias, minas et tactus indecentes multos ibidem servitores solebat ad incontinenciam provocare," &c.

"Tanta igitur mala urgente consciencia non valentes, in ulta pertransire. Ordinamus ut prefata Matildis, ultima in choro et in refectorio, et Alicis penultima loca quociens divinum ibidem celebratur officium, et in refectionibus teneant claustrum per annum nullatenus egressurum. Ad hec considerantes, ubi gubernaculum discipline contemnitur necessarium est, ne religio naufragetur, firmiter injungimus et ordinamus ut omnes et singuli masculi dicto monasterio assueti penitus ammoveantur, servitoribus dictarum monialium necessariis dumtaxat exceptis, ac omnes et singuli servitores ibidem remansuri cujuscumque sexus omnes et singulas moniales dicte domus prout statui earundem convenit verbis et factis decencius reverencia et honorem impendat quelibet earundem," &c.

Extitit insuper in dicta visitacione detectum quod stupendum est relacione et horrendum auditu multisque evidenciis per viam notorietatis facti et confessionis partis compertum quod quedam monialis prefati monasterii, Johanna Trimelet, freno pudicicie nimium soluta dampnato concubitui assueta inventa est, habens in utere, licet non de spiritu sancto, postmodum edidit suum partum in grave obprobrium et confusionem sue religionis et scandalum plurimorum ita nepharium et scandalosum crimen nolentes sub dissimulacione pertransire. Ordinamus et in virtute sancte obediencie injungemus quod dicta Johanna per annum continuum in una domo honesta infra secundam clausuram monasterii vestri maneat interclusa, secunda, tercia, et sexta feria . . . pane et aqua, suos calores macerans juveniles, et in aliis diebus quibuscumque per dictum tempus, panem, potagium et cervisiam pro suo victu sibi tantum precipimus ministrari."

We have heard that the said prioress received four women as sisters of the said monastery for 20*li.* for each, falling into the pravity of simony and sold several corrodies in the said house, our licence not being obtained or asked, &c. Nevertheless, tempering the rigour of the law with clemency, we decree that two of your discrete sisters and circumspect in temporal matters be joined with you in the administration of the temporal affairs of the said house, without whose counsel and their assent you shall do nothing.

The sub-prioress is negligent about delinquent sisters and refuses to be present at the morning at other canonical hours. We will that she be deprived openly in the presence of all her sisters by the prioress in the chapter.

Whereas 4*li.* 2*s.* 7*d.* are exacted by summons of our exchequer under the name of the treasurer of Wells and prebendary of Harpetre for the tenth of the same prebend for the first and second years of the biennial tenth granted to us by the clergy in the 20th year of our reign. And now we have understood by the complaint of the now treasurer and prebendary that although he was not treasurer or prebendary in the said year he is distrained. We command you that, your registers having been searched, if it appear to you that any other was prebendary there at the time of the grant and payment of the said tenth you cause the money to be levied from the goods and chattels of the treasurer and prebendary deceased.

2653. vij Kal., May, A.D. 1352, at Wyvelscombe. Licence for Robert Huyldebrond, rector of the church of Coclyngton to absent himself till the feast of St. Michael.

2654. William de Cammel, subdean of Wells, to Bishop Ralph.

I have received your mandate under the tenour of words which follows:

Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, to the subdean of Wells, greeting, grace and the benediction. We have received the King's writ under the tenour which follows.

(Here follows the writ as on p. 689.)

By pretext of which writ we commit to you to make inquisition and certify us.

Wyvelescomb, ij Non., Ap., A.D. 1352.

By the authority of which mandate I have made diligent inquisition, by which, as also by other lawful documents, I have found that a certain Master Richard de Thystelden was treasurer of the church of Wells and prebendary of Harpetre in the 20th year of the King who now is.

Which said Richard died on the 4th day of Nov., A.D. 1348. And subsequently Master Richard de Thormerton, who now is treasurer of Wells, was installed and inducted into possession on the 27th day of Nov., in the year abovesaid.

And that Master Henry de Harweden immediately succeeded the said Master [Richard] de Thistelden in the prebend of Harpetre and to him [succeeded] Henry de Ingelby who now is prebendary, but the times of the installations of the said Henry and Henry did not appear. I also found that the said Richard de Thistelden died so poor and burdened with debt that he had no goods whereby he could be buried according to the decency of his standing, nor was there anyone who would be the executor of his will. If he had any goods at the time of his death they came to the hands of his successors and were by them employed for the repair of defects in the same benefices.

Wells, iij Id., Ap., A.D. 1352.

2655. John de Empyngham, sequestrator of Master Hugh Pellegrini treasurer of Lichfield, nuncio of the pope in England.

Whereas the parish church of Chugh is united to the table of the lord bishop of Wells by the special Apostolic grace and so the first fruits of the same church are due to the chamber of our lord the pope.

Also whereas the prebend of Weremynstre in the church of Wells was vacant and the pope specially provided for it, and so the first fruits are due to the chamber of the pope. The fruits, &c., whereof Master Hugh sequestrated and we, his sequestrator, have published and announced that the goods of the said church and prebend are so sequestrated by Sir Hugh.

And, because we cannot attend to the collection and custody of them, we order you that you collect the goods of the said church and prebend and keep them under safe sequestration.

Wells, iv Id., Ap., A.D. 1352.

Also under the same form the custody of the fruits of the prebend of St. Decuman is committed to the precentor.

The custody of the fruits of the prebend of Wanstre to Master S. de Hulle. The custody of the fruits of the prebend of Wyvelscombe to Master Thomas de Bukton. The custody of the prebend of Combe Prima to Master John Thursteyn.

2656. xvi Kal., May, A.D. 1352, at Wyvelscombe. The lord instituted Richard de Brokesbourne, priest, to the vicarage of the prebendal church of Ilton to which he was presented by Stephen de Brokesbourne, canon of Wells and prebendary of Ilton.

2657. Non., May, year above.

Thomas Cogan, rector of Honespulle, appeared before Master Thomas de Bukton, the lord's official, in the prebendal church of Wyvelscombe and swore that he would preserve the lord indemnified as regards the writ for John de Wydeford, Henry Russel and others, executors of Robert Wodeford for 100*s* which they demand from him. And the said Thomas is warned under the debt of his oath that he shall find two sureties, rectors or vicars, therefor.

2658. Bishop Ralph to Master Stephen de Hull, canon of Wells.

2712. Inter sollicitudines nostris humeris incumbentes, illud nostre consideracioni occurrit precipuum, ne in agro dominico monasterii, videlicet de Keynesham, canonicorum regularium nostre diocesis indecorum aliquid obrepat, sive viciosum quicquam perniciosam segetem incalescat. Set in illo potius flores honoris et honestatis fructus in ubertate succrescant, Ad inpendendum igitur jure ordinario nostrum visitationis officium, in dictum monasterium die Jovis proximo post festum sancti Martini proximo preterito curavimus declinare, quam actualiter tunc ibidem juxta juris exigenciam excercentes, quedam in dicta visitatione dilectos filios abbatem et conventum monasterii prelibati concernentia inter cetera detecta invenimus, quorum occasione aliquas ad honorem Dei et monasterii predicti utilitatem ibidem ordinavimus injunctiones tenore presencium exprimendas.

In primis in dicta visitatione detectum extitit, et rite coram nobis compertum, quod nec abbas seu alii obedienciarii habentes administrationes seu officicia dicti monasterii consueta per ejusdem canonicos gubernari, vel conversi habentes administrationem in Tannar', Fabrie', Berton', et Wyneffr' in suis officiis suspecti ex certis causis ab anno quo pestilencie et mortalitatis insolita calamitas in partibus istis invaluit, rationcinia de dictis suis administrationibus reddiderunt, prout de jure et sanctorum patrum constitutiones dinoscuntur astricti. Necnon quod ad custodiam ostiorum claustralium deputati in officiis suis adeo sunt negligentes et remissi, quod viros seculares et mulieres horis indebitis ea ingredi paciuntur.

Item quod nec silencium canonici prefati monasterii pro temporibus et locis de regula et observanciis suis debitis et requisitis observant, &c.

Injunximus igitur ut officiarii suprascripti de administrationibus suis predictis ratiocinia sua et compotos citra festum Pasche proximum futurum plenarie reddant sicut de jure et sanctorum patrum constutionibus in hac parte promulgatis arcius obligantur, abbate dumtaxat excepto, &c.

Extitit eciam in dicta visitatione detectum et rite coram nobis compertum quod in diebus anniversarii bone memorie Gilberti nuper comitis Glucestrie dicti monasterii fundatoris ac pro anniversario cujuslibet abbatis et singulorum Canonicorum ejusdem monasterii defunctorum unus panis, una lagena cervisie, unum ferculum de coquina elemosinarii dicti monasterii qui pro tempore fuerit a tempore cujus contrarii memoria non existit, solebant elargiri pauperibus distribuenda, que a certo tempore penitus sunt subtracta. Item quod due partes conventus aliquando simul in refectoris non comedunt, sed ad alia loca divisim se conferunt horis consuete refectionis debitis. Ita quod vix tercia pars conventus hora debita in refectorio invenitur. Necnon quod camerarius qui modo est per aliqua tempora x*li.* sterlingorum predicto conventui debitus annuatim pro certis anniversariis per eosdem celebrandis subtraxhit. Ac eciam quod panis elicitus et exquisitus de medulla tritici pro senioribus canonicis et de residuo tritici pro junioribus canonicis panis debilior preparatur. Injunximus igitur in virtute sancte obediencie ut panis et cervisia ac unum ferculum de coquina pro anniversariis defunctorum, ut premittitur debitis, elemosinario prefati monasterii qui est, vel pro tempore fuerit, solvantur infuturum, prout retro temporibus fieri consuevit. Ac etiam quod abbas prefati monasterii, si due partes conventus singulis diebus ad minus non comedunt in refectorio horis debitis et consuetis, sollicite et frequenter inquirat. Et si per hujusmodi inquisitionem in hoc articulo invenerit fore excessum, presidens sub eo, cujus culpa illud dinoscitur contigisse, precipimus quod coherceat gravi pena. Injunximus etiam camerario qui est vel pro tempore fuerit in virtute sancte obedientie, et sub pena amissionis officii sui, quod decem libras ut premittitur ad quatuor anni terminos equalibus porcionibus conventui antedicto integraliter, nisi rationabili causa aliud inducat, absque quacumque dilatione persolvat. Volentes quod canonicis minoribus sicut senioribus absque personarum acceptacione in panibus et aliis victualibus equaliter per dicti monasterii officiarios ministretur. Occasione insuper detectorum in dicta nostra visitatione et rite compertorum ordinavimus etiam et injunximus, ut carte, instrumenta et munimenta quecumque monasterii prelibati sint in una cista recondita sub seratura trium clavium, quarum unam abbas qui est vel pro tempore fuerit custodiat, et alias duas gerant supprior et Johannes Wamberge, canonicus dicte domus. Et postquam dicti supprior et Johannes decesserint vel cesserint, vel alter eorum decesserit vel cesserit, suis officiis vel officio in hac parte, duo vel unus de senioribus et provectioribus canonicis dicte domus prout predicti canonici, clavigeri, simul vel successive decesserint vel amoti fuerint per abbatem et majorem partem conventus loco eorundem aut ejusdem celeriter subrogetur vel subrogentur.

Adiicimus eciam quod nullus canonicus decetero cum laicis vel quibuscunque habentibus corrodia in monasterio antedicto quovis colore ludum ad taxillos frequentet, &c.

Cumque in dicta visitatione eciam fuisset detectum, quod Johannes Tankard, Robertus Grindere et Johannes Twynere, pastores monasterii antedicti, fuerant et sint super mala administratione sua multipliciter defamati, ex eo quod panem in non modica quantitate et numero surripiunt, contractant et extra abbathiam predictam asportant et ibi vendunt et alia indebite, consumunt pro sue libito voluntatis; necnon quod quidam Edmundus, servitor camerarii suprascripti, ex multis causis creditur inutilis in dicte domus prejudicium non modicum et gravamen. Injunximus igitur quod de premissis solers et diligens per abbatem et aliquos seniores monasterii predicti canonicos fiat inquisitio infra mensem. Et si de hiis super quibus infamati dinoscuntur fuerint convicti, eos et eorum quoslibet, a suis officiis absque mora precipimus totaliter amoveri, &c.

Precipimus et mandamus firmiter injungentes, ut cantaria pro anima Johannis Santmareys benefactoris vestri, nuper defuncti, sub certa forma in dicto monasterio ordinato, juxta sui conditionem, formam et effectum faciatis perfici et adimpleri.

Injungimus etiam, ut quendam Johannem Golynge, in infirmaria vestra nuper servitorem, quem nos ex certis causis ad id nos moventibus in dicta visitatione nostra a suo officio, necnon et quoscumque alios quos tunc per decretum a suis officiis amovimus, faciatis eos de facto et realiter amoveri, &c.

2768. Bishop Ralph to the prior and convent of St. German, in Cornwall.

Because, when actually exercising the office of our visitation in the priory of Taunton on Monday next after the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, we found that Robert Cundyt, a canon and brother of the same place, was an apostate and disobedient to the prior, and also made deadly threats to him, and insulted the prior, and said many infamous and abusive words against his due obedience. Because the said Robert, against our injunctions, would wander after curfew and carry on talkings, and had been reproved for these things by the prior and he said that he would not be corrected by him, but said if the prior opposed his word to him he would break his head. And that he was an appropriator because he appropriated to himself the goods of the said church without the leave of the prior and gave them to others at the time he was cellarer. Also, after he was removed from office he took money and other goods pertaining to the said office without any authority, and disposed of the same. Also he was a dilapidator of the goods of the church when he was pittancer, and in all the offices in which he was administrator he dilapidated all the goods coming to his hands, &c.

We found also that the said Robert committed incontinence with a certain woman, and also made deadly threats to the subprior because he would have made him observe the rules of the order. He hindered the entry of the prior to the dormitory when he reproved him for his defaults and made grave threats to him and yet perseveres in his wickedness. On account of which things we then and there caused the said Robert to be delivered to the custody of the gaoler, and we decreed to transmit him to another place of his order for safe custody until he shall be found to be reconciled. We ask and exhort you in the Lord that you admit the said Robert and cause him to be kept in safe custody at the costs of the priory of Taunton.

We order you that you publish and cause to be published on Sundays and feast days between the solemnities of masses in the religious house aforesaid, and in the churches of Radeclive and Temple, that the said Sir Walter has been so removed by us from the administration and rule of the said religious house.

you that you make inquisition concerning the vacancy of the said vicarage, &c.

Banewell, xiv Kal., Dec., A.D. 1353.

By pretext of which we have diligently enquired in full chapter by Sir Adam, rector of the church of Walton, and Sirs Henry and Richard, perpetual vicars of Weston and Merlynch, and also by Alan Tyderleye, rector of Bodecleye, and Sir Geoffrey Porchet, proctor of the vicar of Aysshecote, and Sir Alexander, parish chaplain of St. John, of Glaston, in the monastery of the same place.

Who say that the said vicarage is now vacant by the cession of Sir Walter de Claudon, last rector, that the abbot and convent have the right of presenting, that the presentee is of good life and honest conversation and in the order of priest, and there is nothing to hinder him from being admitted.

Fol. 426. 2781. Although all primary and immediate spiritual or ecclesiastical jurisdiction over the clergy and people within the parishes of St. John, Glaston, Mere, Strete, Buddecleye, Schapewike, Merlynch and Sowy and other persons living in the said parishes from olden time have pertained to the abbot and convent of Glaston, institutions and ordinations of clerks excepted. And the said religious men by their archdeacons, officials, commissaries and ministers had been the sole keepers of the jurisdiction aforesaid, nevertheless Thomas Chyw, janitor and minister of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, notwithstanding an appeal, cited Walter de Spekynton, parishioner of St. John, Glaston, and personally apprehended within the said parish, to appear before the said father or his commissary at Banewell in a place altogether outside the jurisdiction of Glaston. Wherefore, I, the proctor of the said religious men, appeal to the Apostolic See and for the protection of the court of Canterbury. [s. d.]

2788. Bishop Ralph to all.

Whereas the fruits, rents and issues pertaining to the chapel or church of Erneshull do not suffice for the fit sustentation of one perpetual chaplain, and to pay a certain annual pension to the rector of Coriryvel, and for other charges, and the rectors on account of its poorness from olden time sometimes for a year and more, and sometimes for several continuous months, did not care to celebrate divine services there or to exercise the cure of souls "Set eorum victualia, magna necessitate ducti, ad modum quasi mendicancium querebant sepius in remotis, exigentibusque peccatis, hominum multitudo populi per pestilenciam paucis annis preteritis humane nature insidiantem in predictis locis quamplurimum decreuit, dicteque ecclesie de Coriryvel et Erneshull vicinitate locorum sunt annexe, sicque duos, sicut olim, non debeant aut poterint habere proprios sacerdotes: immo per unum melius et competencius regi poterunt et gubernari. Et ipsa insuper capella seu ecclesia de Erneshull occasione dicte pensionis, seu census sibi ab antiquo impositorum, et quia corpora quorumcunque parochianorum ejusdem capelle decedencium omni tempore et adhuc ex legitima prescripta consuetudine in cimiterio seu ecclesia de Coriryvel predicta sunt sepulta ab eadem ecclesia de Coriryvel videtur ab antiquo dependere." We, Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, considering all and singular the premises above written, Sir William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, patron as well of the church of Coririvel as of the chapel of Erneshull aforesaid giving his assent, annex and unite the chapel of Erneshull, with all its rights, members and appurtenances now vacant for the causes aforesaid, to the aforesaid church of Coriryvel, and to the rector of the same church and his successors by the pontifical authority. We ordain also that the rectors of Coriryvel shall have the cure of the souls of all the parishioners, and also acknowledge all the ordinary and extraordinary charge of the said chapel of Erneshull on Sundays, Wednesdays, Fridays, Christmas, Circumcision, Epiphany, Easter, Pentecost, Trinity, and the dedication of the church of Coriryvel by a certain and fit secular chaplain, &c. As often as the rectors of Coriryvel shall put off for three days, continuous or interrupted, saying masses at Erneshull by themselves or a fit chaplain they shall be bound to pay half a mark to the church of Wells and all expenses, to be paid to the keeper of the fabric, and 40*d.* to the archdeacon of Taunton from the fruits of the church of Coriryvel.

We command you that you cause twelve as well knights as other free and lawful men of the vicinage of Cherde, each of whom shall have 100*s.* of land, tenements or rent by the year at least, to come before our justices at Westminster in three weeks from Easter day, or before our beloved and trusty William de Shareshull and John de Stonford, or one of them, if they shall come first, on the 11th day of March, at Jevele, to recognise upon their oath what right the bishop has in the service of the said tenements, and which of his predecessors was in seisin thereof as in right of their church. In the meantime take the tenements into our hand and let the chief, mesne or immediate lords of that fee know that they may be there to hear the jury if they wish, &c.

Wyvelscombe, 24 May, 28 Edw. iii.

Carta regis.

Edward, by the grace of God, King of England, &c., to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting.

Although by the common council of our kingdom of England it is enacted that it is not lawful for religious men or others to enter into the fee of anyone so that it shall go to mortmain, without our licence and that of the chief lord of whom that thing is immediately held.

Nevertheless for 100*s.*, which Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, shall pay to us, we have granted and given licence to Master Thomas de Bukton and William de Cammel that they can give and assign one messuage, one carucate of land, 24 acres of meadow, 6 acres of wood, and 20*s.* 8*d.* of rent in Welleslegh, Doultecote and Eston to the said bishop.

To have and to hold to him and his successors forever. And to the same Thomas and William that they can grant that one messuage, 8 acres of land, and one acre and a half of meadow in Doultecote, which John de Welleslegh holds for the term of his life, &c., shall remain to the bishop.

To have and to hold to him and his successors together with the said messuages, carucates of land, 24 acres of meadow, wood and rent for ever. So that the same bishop can give and assign the same messuage, carucates of land, 24 acres of meadow, wood and rent to the vicars of the cathedral church of Wells to celebrate divine services for the healthful state of Walter de Hull, archdeacon of Bath, and the said Thomas and William de Cammel whilst they shall live, and for their souls when they shall pass away from this light, and for the souls of the fathers and mothers of the said bishop, archdeacon, Thomas and William de Cammel, and their ancestors and benefactors, and all the faithful deceased in the church of St. Andrew, of Wells, every day.

To have and to hold to the same vicars to celebrate as is aforesaid, &c.

(The reversion of the rest of the lands in like manner.)

We have received the mandate of your reverend fatherhood in these words: John by divine compassion, bishop of Exeter to the dean of Molton and the rector of Estansty. Robert, rector of Wytherigge and Henry, rector of Spaxton, propose to exchange their benefices. We command you that you diligently enquire, &c.

Chuddelegh, 16 Jan., A.D. 1362.

By authority of which mandate we diligently made inquisition by the rectors and vicars of the deanery of Molton in the church of Wytherigge. Who say that the prioress and convent of Canyngton are the true patrons of the said church, &c. The presentee is free and legitimate, fitting and honest, and in the order of priesthood. The cause of the exchange on the part of the said Henry, as he publicly says, is, that there is there for the greater part dwelling near the church of Spaxston a great lord, James de Audelegh, against whom the same Henry has just actions, &c. The cause of the exchange on the part of the Master Robert is that the cure of the church of Wytherigge "lata est larga et periculosa," nor can the said Robert, as he publicly says, govern and rule the cure of the church of Wytherigge according to his conscience on account of divers occupations which he has in the service of the lord bishop of Bath and Wells.

117. Bishop Ralph to the official of the archdeacon of Wells.

We received the mandate of Simon, archbishop of Canterbury, on the 19th day of Jan. last, past containing the form within written, Simon, &c. Sane communis ad nos querela perduxit et magistra rerum experiencia manifestat, quod moderni temporis sacerdotes adeo jam cupiditatis et acidie vicio infecerunt quod stipendiis racionabiliter non contenti pro labore salaria vendicant et recipiunt excessiva. Salutariumque laborum spretis exerciciis adeo delicatis student voluptatibus, quod ecclesiis vel capellis parochialibus et curis animarum deservire seu intendere, tanquam parochiales presbiteri etiam oblatis sibi congruis salariis recusant penitus et contempnunt, &c., in virorum ecclesiasticorum detestabile scandalum et exemplum perniciocissimum laicorum. Huic igitur morbo pestifero mederi salubriter et celeriter cupientes de fratrum nostrorum consilio et assensu statuimus et ordinamus, quod capellani annualia celebrantes et ceteri curam animarum non intendentes, quinque marcas; ecclesiis vero seu capellis parochialibus et curae eisdem iminenti officiantes, sex marcas, pro suis stipendiis annuis debeant contentari nisi locorum diocesani propter amplioris parochie solicitudinem vel aliam causam legitimam aliter pro suo arbitrio duxerint ordinandum &c., Datum apud Lambeth, Kal., Dec., A.D. 1352.

We order that you publish the said constitutions and mandates in all churches and chapels within the jurisdiction of your archdeaconry.
